The Freedom of the Seas Awards honors those who embody the core principles of the American Surface Navy's mission to protect and defend our oceans for the benefit of the free world.

FREEDOM OF THE SEAS AWARD

The Freedom of the Seas Award goes to an accomplished individual who embodies the core principles of America's Surface Navy to protect and defend our oceans for the benefit of the free world.

VADM SAMUEL L. GRAVELY, JR. LEADERSHIP AWARD

The VADM Samuel L. Gravely, Jr. award recognizes leaders who exemplify the trailblazing, courageous service of the late U.S. Surface Navy Vice Admiral.

HUMANITARIAN SERVICE AWARD

The Humanitarian Service award recognizes those who exemplify the exceptional bravery that is necessary to sail through troubled waters-in order to provide disaster relief, defend trade routes, and fight piracy as a means of upholding the core principle of America's Surface Navy.

GLOBAL TRADE AND COMMUNICATIONS AWARD

The Global Trade and Communications award recognizes leaders in commercial shipping that embody the ideals of the Surface Navy in their utilization of the ocean for the benefit of the free world.

FREEDOM OF THE SEAS AWARDS

The Freedom of the Seas Awards are held in honor of the Battle of Leyte Gulf, the largest naval battle of World War II. The battle was fought in waters near the Philippine islands October 23-26, 1944 between the combined forces of the United States and Australia and the Imperial Japanese Navy.

FOUR MAJOR ENGAGEMENTS

1. Battle of the Sibuyan Sea - October 24, 1944
2. Battle of Surigao Strait - October 25, 1944
3. Battle of Cape Engaño - October 25-26, 1944
4. Battle off Samar - October 25, 1944

Leyte Gulf was the first battle in which the Japanese carried out organized kamikaze attacks, and the last naval battle between battleships in history. The battle rendered the Japanese Navy a fateful blow ultimately leading to the beginning of the end of the Pacific war.

BATTLE OF LEYTE GULF ANNIVERSARY

The Surface Navy is the backbone of America's Navy and the most capable surface force in the world. Since October 13, 1775, the men and later, women of the Surface Navy have deployed around the globe.

The National Museum of the Surface Navy, or "NMSN," is envisioned as a community-based and future-oriented facility to be located aboard the venerable Battleship IOWA at the Port of Los Angeles – our nation's busiest port.

The mission of the Museum is to raise awareness about the importance of the US Navy Surface Fleet's role in facilitating international relations, free trade, humanitarian assistance, and technological innovation.
